

Delain, See Me In Shadow

[Charlotte Wessels]

Standing in the shadow of our lies
To hide our imperfection
Doing anything we can to hide
Eyes wide open, but still blind
To see what really matters
Insecurity won't go
See me in shadow

[Liv Kristine]

Standing by the ruins of your soul
That cries for some more meaning
Wondering when you had
Become so cold
(So cold...)

[Charlotte Wessels]

And all the pictures of your past are gone
Forget yourself, and who you are
Another life is not that far

[Charlotte Wessels]

Standing by the paintings of your dreams
But you have awoken
And all the purples, and the greens
Have turned to black

[Liv Kristine]

And the ruins of your soul have died
No more meaning
Wonder when you have
Become so cold
(So cold...)

[Charlotte Wessels/Liv Kristine]

And all the pictures of your past are gone
Forget yourself, and who you are
Another life is not that far

Not that far...

Not that far...
