

Delain, Shattered

Encaged in a memory
Encaged in a prison of guilt
Surrounded by reproach
And everybody knows

Chorus:

She flies over town in white shades
But you're left behind
With a thousand troubled minds
You cannot speak; you're blinded by your grief
She flies over town every step
But you feel alone
Cause angels don't come home

As the sky is clearing
You clear your mind
Hide all mirrors not to see
What the morphine couldn't hide

Shattered faces on the floor
Your broken mask serves you no more

Repeat chorus: 2x
