

Delta Goodrem, Flawed

I don't wanna be broken
I wanna be laughing on a Saturday night
Surrounded by strangers who don't have a clue
That I'm struggling to find the light

I don't wanna be open
I wanna be a photograph under exposed
Impossible to figure out who I am
Right now I wonder if the world will ever know
Cause since you've been gone I'm a puzzle without pieces
I'm a bird that can't fly

I don't know why, love has to be so flawed
Will I ever get, exactly what I want?
And I don't care why, the only way to win is to risk it all
And not be afraid to fall
Why do we have to be so flawed?

I've got treasures in my head
Dreams like diamonds, all wrapped in gold
And will anybody ever know oh oh?

Cause I don't know why love, has to be, so flawed

Will I ever get, exactly what I want?
And I don't care why, the only way to win is to risk it all
Not be afraid to fall
Why do we have to be so flawed?

My fears and imperfections
Try to bring me down
Can't be afraid
Only my dreams can save me now

I don't know why love has to be so flawed

I don't know why, love has to be so flawed
Yes it is
Will I ever get, ever get exactly what I want?

And I don't care why the only way to win is to risk it all
And not be afraid to fall
Why do we have to be so flawed?

Hmmmaaahh

Why do we have to be so flawed?
