

Delta Goodrem, My Big Mistake

amazing fairytale that had come true Mr reliable romantic was you blinded misguided in the arms of love just 'cause it suited the both of us then it all went wrong i'm the one to blame taking you for granted in so many ways

when i look back now how can i ever forget you make me so happy the day we met

how could something so magic (magic) become something so tragic (tragic) right before my eyes two separate lives
every second was a precious moment now i'm thinking about the path i've chosen wish i could un-make my big mistake my big mistake

communication had broken down this situation was out of our hands well my hands you've got to please understand that i was too young, yes just too young for that i guess it all went wrong and i'm the one to blame but what i would give to have you back again the days the weeks the months the years that we have wasted i'm sorry

i still love you
i don't expect a call 'cause my apology's belated
and i miss you all my life
