

Demi Lovato, Trash

Don't try to cover up your, your new flame
That's seething through your eyes.
I can see it from 10 feet away and I know
Just who is burning.
With every kiss you deny
So what makes you think, that I
Still care or still want you anymore

So how long has this been
Going on and one more thing tell me
Was she the reason you stomped on my heart
And moved on so quickly

You can call it pure torture
Watching your every move with her
Oh, just the thought of it,
Knowing what goes on between you
Makes me sick
I should've noticed, I should've noticed
When she came into the picture
You were always with her
And she's not leaving.

So how long has this been
Going on and one more thing tell me
Was she the reason you stomped on my heart
And moved on so quickly

You called me shady
And now she's your baby doll
She drove you over,
Over to break it off
And this time just maybe
Maybe you went a little far
I'm sick of crying about,
About your new flame
That's soon to burn out.

So how long has this been
Going on and one more thing tell me
Was she the reason you stomped on my heart
And moved on so quickly

I'm done.
