

Demis Roussos, Hey Friend

Anytime you see me
acting kinda mean honey,
don't take it hard,
you know it ain't what it seems.
It's just one of those moods, everybody gets into,
well I'm feeling like a trumpet that's playing out of tune in a downtown bar, a smoky saloon and you can't tell me it ain't never happened to you.

Hey friend
I'm depending on you, you'll be making me grin
in a minute or two,
'cause with a lady like you
I'll never need to pretend.
Hey friend
I'm just letting you know so you can ride with the tide, you can roll with the flow.
I'm just getting my head
back on its feet again.
I'm just getting my head
back on its feet again.

Well nobody's dying???
And no I ain't ill.
I've got a lady I love and I've paid all my bills.
And I can work it out what's messing up my mind, but maybe it's a thing
I don't need to understand.
Like the faze of the moon
'cause even a man can have his own kinda regular ups and downs sometimes.
