Demis Roussos, I'll Be Your Friend

I will never leave you,
I will not deceive you,
I will always be your friend.
I will never leave you,
I will not deceive you,
I'll love to the very end.

I'll be your friend and I will never let you down, whatever happens I will always be around, when you're in troubles I will be right friend for you, I will help you whatever you do.

We were lovers long ago, I still care for you, I want you to know.

I'll be your friend and I will never let you down, whatever happens I will always be around and when you need someone I won't be far away, friends forever, not only today.

You found someone else and I had to go, but I'll stay old friend, darling don't you know.

I'll be your friend and I will never let you down, whatever happens I will always be around and when you need someone I won't be far away, friends forever, not only today.

I will never leave you, I will not deceive you, I will always be your friend. I will never leave you, I will not deceive you, I'll love to the very end.
