

Dennis Lloyd, Berlin

Staying up and it's getting late
I think I might go insane
Cause lately I feel like I'm lost,
I'm out of control
I'm Losing my mind
Getting late and it's time to
Wake up,
Don't wanna miss out the train
Cause whether I like it or not
Some say till dawn
Show must go on

Go round the world,
Forget about the things
We used to hold
Let's take it to Berlin
You by New York
Until we find a place
Where you belong
I wanna take it, take it, take it
I wanna take a trip around the world
Forget about the things
We used to hold
Let's take it to Berlin
You by New York
Until we find a place
Where you belong
I wanna take it
Take it to Berlin
Where we belong

Tryina leave, but we can't escape
I wish I could find a way
To take you wherever you shine
Where we can decide a way to be fine
Getting late and it's time to
Wake up,
Don't wanna miss out the train
Cause whether I like it or not
Some say till dawn
Show must go on

Go round the world,
Forget about the things
We used to hold
Let's take it to Berlin
You by New York
Until we find a place
Where you belong
I wanna take it, take it, take it
I wanna take a trip around the world
Forget about the things
We used to hold
Let's take it to Berlin
You by New York
Until we find a place
Where you belong
I wanna take it
Take it to Berlin
Where we belong
