

Derek, I'll Beat Your Ass

I'll beat your ass...

you wanted to talk shit about me now there are tears in your eyes
'cause you are fked now you know No more backstabing and lies

There you were, wild and free talking shit like you want some of me you reach out your hand try to stop the fight but i wont go silently into the night

CHORUS

I'll beat you ass
just to prove i am the great one with a flash light
i will laugh when i see you run I'll beat your ass

and pin you just so i can see you cry
'Cause my pataints is gone And i'm going to beat you all through the night

talking shit like you want some of me
you reach out your hand try to stop the fight
but i wont go silently into the night

CHORUS - repea

You dis me so I'll kill you i will make my dreams come true I can show you what that means soon you will be crying on your knees

I'll beat your ass
with a flash light
and you can run
go home and cry
I'll beat your ass
with a flash light
and you can run

CHORUS - repeat

I'll beat your ass
with a flash light
then you can run
go home and cry
i'll beat your ass
with a flash light
then you can run
go home and cry
I'll beat your ass
and pin you
just so i can see you cry I'll beat your ass
