

DeSol, Mona Lisa

There's a little black girl in my neighborhood
who was always out clapping and jumping rope She'd dance for people passing by

Always giving a stellar performance in exchange for a smile
but people paid her no mind
No matter how hard she tried

Mona Lisa jumped real high Opened up her arms
and touched the sky
Mona Lisa
You've seen more worlds than I with your starry eyes

One day up the hill
by the A&P
Where the old break dancers used to meet
Some kids said
Come on, show us what you got

Mona Lisa thought that they were laughing with her but they were laughing at her
And to their surprise what happened next urban legend provides

Mona Lisa jumped
Real high
Opened up her arms
and touched the sky
Mona Lisa
You've seen more worlds than i You showed us how to live our lives

With your starry eyes (oh, oh, oh)
Dancing in the sky (oh, oh, Oh)
Never compromise (oh, oh, oh)
Can I dance with you tonight until tomorrow?

Well its been some years
since I've been back home and on my block
they still see her Stories of a little girl who with her step tried to change the world

Mona Lisa jumped
Real High
Opened up her arms
And touched the sky
Mona Lisa, Mona Lisa
Can you see her?

Can you feel her?
You've seen more worlds than I

You showed us how to do it right with your starry eyes Dancing in the sky
Never compromise
Can I dance with you tonight
into tomorrow?

En la manana
I'm gonna find my way home
