

Destiny's Child, Heart Still Beats

You're holding me and I close my eyes
You're whispering and I start to cry
You feel so good, you're so beautiful
For as long as you live, don't let me go
Hold me, touch me, feel me
As long as you love me, reach for me and need me
If you could trust me and teach me
Never let go of me
Because your care for me, my heart still beats
Looking in the eyes, the eyes of love
And I hold your face and i see the sign
And I taste your kiss and you touch my soul
And I feeling things, I never felt before
Hold me, touch me, feel me
As long as you love me, reach for me and need me
If you could trust me and teach me
Never let go of me
Because your there for me, my heart still beats
I'm feeling what they call pure love
I never knew feeling like this could exist inside of me
I'm soaring, emotions exploding
I don't wanna live another day if you're not here with me
Hold me, touch me, feel me
As long as you love me, reach for me and need me
If you could trust me and teach me
Never let go of me
Because your there for me, my heart still beats
Because you're there for me, my heart still beats oh yeah
ooooh my heart still beats
