

Destiny's Child, She can't love you

I saw your new girlfriend the other day
And I expected for her to be so much more than she was
I checked out her style
The way she smiled
The way she moved
The things she said
The way she looked at me like
I got your man

(Refrain)

She cant love you like I can
All of her love just cant compare
To what I have

She cant touch you like I do
Cause when yall touchin
You pretend its me and you

(Chorus)

And theres no way
Her love's as good as mine
Theres no reason for you to waste your time

(Verse)

When we were together
You told me what you didn't like
And you went out and got exactly that type
Except that your new girl is nothing

Compared to me

Everything that she did wrong

I always did right

She cant hold you like I can

Boy you a fool

If you can't realize what you had

She can't feel you like I can

Cause I'm a girl

That's always standin by my man
