

Destroy!, Get Used To It

Gay and proud and in your face
Coming out every place
Provokes your violent aggression
From the direction of another's affection

Might make you feel uncomfortable
You might think it's strange
But you'd better be used to it
'Cos it never gonna change

Your cruel jokes and violent behavior
Reveal bigoted sexual insecurity
Discriminatory behavior
Of dominant hetero society

What if hetero males
Were the victims and not the queer nation
Maybe then we'd see
Some appeals of toleration
Get used to it!
