

DevilDriver, Nest of Vipers

Let me ask you
If i died for you
Would you die for me?

What do the cards say?
On this cold dank day

I've spread the deck so many Times
I've watched the lamps burn bright
I've spread the deck so many Times
I've seen their insight!
All the sign told me all this time all this time...

the kings sworn men make perfect liars she sleeps whit bones besides her they found body in a nest of vipers!
