

Devin Townsend, Call Of The Void

Shapeshifter to the weary eyed
With nothing left we take it all and run and hide

Take a walk down by the river
Revelations, paranoia
And the thoughts that pull us under, are they calling?

'Cause when you see the world's insane reaction
To follow your heart, the worst reaction is to freak out
So don't you freak out

Collide into your interior
You doubted for so long it took control

Take a walk down by the river
Revelations, paranoia
And the thoughts that pull you under, are they calling?

'Cause when you see the world's insane reaction
To follow your heart, the worst reaction is to freak out
So don't you freak out
'Cause when you feel the urge to feign reaction
Just follow your heart, the worst reaction is to freak out
So don't you freak out

You want them to see the world the same as you and
To feel the pain the same as you but
Everybody in the world's different point of view
They never see the world the same

So when you see the Earth the sane reaction
To follow your heart, the worst reaction is to freakout
So don't you freak out

So if you feel the world's insane, relax!
Just follow your heart, the words will work out as they freak out
But we're free to close the door
And I wonder, and I wonder, God, I wonder, and I wonder
And I wonder, is there anyone out there?
