

DI-RECT, Don't Kill Me Tonight

When Im on the loss
It is you whos shining through and through again
Whenever the rain comes down, the sun turns gray
When I needed you, you were always there
When it comes to you, really nothing can compare
You feel what I feel, know what I know
Even through the darkest night
Youll see what I see
Theres a reason to believe in you and me
I would die if you let me
Drowning in sorrow
Baby dont kill me tonight
Would you hold on to me, girl?
And love me tomorrow
When Im feeling blue
It is you whos reaching out for me again
Whenever I need you wings to fly away
You feel what I feel, hear what I hear
Even trough the darkest night
Youll sleep when I sleep
Theres a reason to believe in faith cause
Heaven sent me you
I would die if you let me
Drowning in sorrow
Baby dont kill me tonight
Would you hold on to me, girl?
And love me tomorrow
Love me tomorrow again
So if you need me, I will be near
Another thousand miles, I will be there
I will hear you, I will se through
Even through the darkness ill be true
I would die if you let me
Drowning in sorrow
Baby dont kill me tonight
And so I wrote you these words down
For you to remember
For you to remember why
I love you
