Diabolicum, Sound The Horns Of Reprisal

[Jon Nodtveidt, Survival Unit]

Let the cry of war be heard Sounding to all corners of cosmos

We who have endured aeons of slavery Have awaken!

We who have been chained To the wheel of eternity Have risen!

We whose very essence Was raped a million times Dare you!

And we accuse you, oh filthy one, Of the ultimate crime Yet failing on its completion

For you failed to kill our inner spark And you falled to kill our spirit

Sound the horns of reprisal To all corners of cosmos

For we are risen, illuminated and elevated And the portals are about to open

[For Chaos]
