Dial, Sadness

How could I ever think that this would last forever? You never saw, you never saw the real me It was all a lie!

All you wished, all you hoped for Never thought it was all you lived for

Now I'm lost in this madness of emotions What am I to do; the man behind the mask? Filled with scars

Tell me, trust me, show me your sadness Love me, lead me, give me your sadness

All you dreamed, all you fought for Now its lost, it was all you lived for
