

Dial, Wounded

You're my mission impossible
That look on your face it hurts
There is this wound inside my heart
As deep as a hole in the ground

Heal me I'm bleeding!
(There's this wound inside my heart)
Heal me I'm bleeding!
(You crossed the line, see how I crawl)

Cry like a widow will I find my way home?
Feeling so lost in this merry-go-round
Blinded and bruised ever since you've been gone
Try to awake but this nightmare keeps going on

(You've left me behind so catch me
I'm falling (down))
