

Diamond Rio, One Believer

There are some roads you must walk yourself,
Just you and your own Faith: nothing else.
And on those dark days you're bound to go through,
Here's something to hold on to.

You got one believer,
One whose Faith goes deeper.
When someone loves you as much as me,
One believer is all you need.

This world's gonna try to bring you down,
But don't you let it: you just stand your ground.
Whatever happens, never forget:
Wherever you are, as long as I live.

You got one believer,
One whose Faith goes deeper.
When someone loves you as much as me,
One believer is all you need.

When someone loves you as much as me,
One believer is all you need.

One (One.)
Believer,
One whose Faith goes deeper.
When someone loves you as much as me,
One believer is all you need.

Oh One (Just one.)
Believer.
Mmm.
