

Diamond Rio, Til' The Heartache's Gone

Let the tears fall like rain
If that's what it takes
To wash away your memory
Let the hurt take its time
I don't mind waiting
If that's the way it's gotta be
I'll keep holdin' on
'Til the heartache's gone

All the might have been's
And the never will be's
They can never take your place
But they're all that's left
Of all that ever mattered to me
And they fill this empty space
And I'll keep holin' on

'Til the heartache's gone

I'll make believe you still love me
'Til the heartache's gone
I'll pretend you still care
You'll always be here
'Til the heartache's gone

Baby I can make it through
The pain of losing you
If that's the way it's gotta be
I'll keep holdin' on
No matter how long
'Til the heartache's gone
