

Diana Fox, Rhythm Of My Heart

Diana Fox - Rhythm of My Heart

The rhythm of my heart
The rhythm of my soul
The rhythm of the world
Keeps me down in on

If you stay with me
And you hold the key
To my lonely heart
We can make a star

I feel the rhythm of the night
Is it wrong or is it right
I feel the rhythm of the world tonight
I see the angels in the light
I feel the devil of the night
The rhythm of the world inside

The rhythm of my heart
The rhythm of my soul
The rhythm of the world
Keeps me down in on

If you stay with me
And you hold the key
To my lonely heart
We can make a star

The rhythm of my heart
The rhythm of my soul
The rhythm of the world
Keeps me down in on

If you stay with me
And you hold the key
Of to my lonely heart
We can make a star

We can make a star
We can make a star

The rhythm of my heart
The rhythm of my soul
The rhythm of the world
Keeps me down in on
