

Diana King, New Galfriend

Hi how u doing, long time no see Still remember your face cause I see it in my dreams
Boy u're looking good, but then u always did
Who's the chick with the pretty face
Is she the one u're with Don't tell me u want us, to be friends
That's something I just can't do
Boyfriend I'm sorry, forgive me
I got plans for you
I don't like your new galfriend
Cause she's standing in the place where I should have been
I don't like your new galfriend
She's messing with my head
She's sleaping in my bed
See I had it all worked out
To get u back as my man
To have her in my way
Wasn't part of the plan
What is this I see, a new shinning diamond ring
Are u sure she has no secrets
Cus I've heard so many things
Was it so easy, to leave me
And find somebody new You'll be sorry, without me
She's no good for you
I don't like your new galfriend
Cause she's standing in the place
where I should have been
I don't like your new galfriend
She's messing with my head
She's sleaping in my bed
I don't like your new garlfriend
And I don't think that you should ever see her again
I don't like your new galfriend
She's messing up my plan
She's fucking with my man
