Diana Krall, My Shining Hour

This moment, this minute And each second in it Will leave a glow upon the sky And as time goes by, it will never die

This will be my shining hour Calm and happy and bright In my dreams, your face will flower Through the darkness of the night

Like the lights of home before me Or an angel, watching oer me This will be my shining hour til Im with you again

(like the lights of home before me) (or an angel watching oer me) This will be my shining hour Til Im with you again
