

Diane Cluck, My Teacher Died/Countless Times

oh my teacher
oh my teacher died
am i student now
of whom i cannot tell
of whom i cannot tell
am i student now
oh since my teacher died
am i student now
oh no i cannot tell
my teacher died
am i student now
countless times
of whom i cannot tell
countless times
of what i cannot tell
countless times
am i student now
countless times
of what i cannot tell
countless times
am i student now
countless times
am i student now
countless times
countless times
countless times
countless times
there's a knot
at the back of your neck and a lump at the top of your spine that's what you get when you keep saying no no no but it's all meaning yes all the time all for yes or no you wait too long that's going too long just say yes meaning no no no there's a knot at the back of your neck
and a lump at the top of your spine that's what you get what you keep saying no no no
all for yes or no you wait too long
say yes yes yes
too long
countless times
countless times
am i a student now
since my teacher died
ooh
cannot tell
oh
