

Dickies, I Can't Let Go

well i tried and i try but i can't say goodbye feel so bad baby though it hurts me when think of how you love and desert me i'm the broken hearted toy you play with baby you got me going i need you baby i can't let go and i want you baby i gotta have you know i can't let go

though i'm just one of your lovers and i know that there are so many others you do something strange to me baby baby i try and i try but i can't say goodbye but the thought of you gone makes me want to hold on
