

Die Happy, Cancer

Isn't it beautiful
When one and one became two
Isn't it wonderful to touch each other, feel each other
What an experience
Doing things with no sense
Feeling your trembling
Running through your veins

Did you think about it when you show'ed her how to kiss
Did you think about it when you show'ed her how to touch
Did you think about it when you broke her little life
You are like cancer
Cannot be healed
You've got no answer
Don't know how to beat it
You are the cancer
You fucking liar
The once you touched
Is still ?alive?/?lie?
I wished it ?can?/?hell?

Love is for free end
Now when you're feeling
It is so pure
Like a new born child
So isn't it strange
When it ?screw? your angel
Is that really all
Is this what you really want

Did you think about it when you show'ed her how to kiss
Did you think about it when you show'ed her how to touch
Did you think about it when you broke her little life
You are like cancer
Cannot be healed
You've got no answer
Don't know how to beat it
You are the cancer
You fucking liar
The once you touched
Is still ?alive?/?lie?
I wished it ?can?/?hell?

Did you think about it when you show'ed her how to kiss
Did you think about it when you show'ed her how to touch
Did you think about it when you broke her little life
Did you think about life
You are like cancer
Cannot be healed
You've got no answer
You are the cancer
You fucking liar
The once you touched
Is still ?alive?/?lie?
I wished it ?can?/?hell?

You are the cancer
You are the cancer

Did you think about it when you show'ed her how to kiss
Did you thik about it when you broke her little life
Did you think about yourself

Did you think about
Did you think about it
