Die Krupps, Crossfire

Gunshots fill the air - salute our bliss Night bursts into flames - greets the final kiss Death comes without a sound - rings the wedding bell Target hits the ground - honeymoon in hell

Shot - shot by both sides In a war that won't cease They give their lives Unheard cry for peace

Cities under siege - where the snipers strike Lovers out of reach - yearning out in the night Take your lovers hand - meet your destiny Down in noone's land - for eternity

... CROSSFIRE! CROSSFIRE!
