

Die Monster Die, Vagina Dentata

The silent sun shines within
Listen to yourself and deception floats away...
I turn my back now to the world
And crawl into the dirt and stone
Eyes shut I can see
Now it's time to breathe the flame...

Vestal virgin image will distract another victim
For the salamanders in the sun
Carnival of bloodshed lies through bloodshot eyes
I'm waiting for another revival

Squishing underneath the sandal sidewalk
Walk across the burning coals
Chanting, raise your hands to him
Lay your hands across the fire...

Vestal virgin image will distract another victim
For the salamanders in the sun
Carnival of bloodshed lies through bloodshot eyes
I'm waiting for another revival
Crawl into the fountain, drink the waters of salvation
From your fallen idol

I won't tell, yeah you won't ask me
You should find it for yourself
Let's just say you're only sleeping now inside a shell...
Lose your ingrained old reactions,
All obsessions of things unreal
Now your true self is dissolving into streams of fields...
Saint no one
