

Die Trying, Candle Song

the candles burning bright its burnt a million times before why cant i put it out
now i stand alone
hidden in a corner by the shadow of my myself

why do u have to be

why cant things ever go my way i no theres someone like me somewhere there has to be someone else that can see that life is unfaire
but why do i care
[why do i care]
its written in the stars
and its rippen me apart [ripped me apart]
whats shown as my fait
was one big mistake

the sunshine in light shows a million times before waitnin' for the light im helpless without the sun when i step outside
lets have some light

always behide
i cant stay anymore
hope i get threw today
i know there someone like me
but why do i care
[why do i care]
then its rippen me apart [ripped me apart]
what shows you as my fait is one big mistake

but why do i care
[why do i care]
[ripped me apart]
whats shows u as my fait
was one big mistake
