Dierks Bentley, Midnight Radio

(Mike Ward / Dierks Bentley)

They come from Kentucky, Mississippi and Alabam Way down in Texas from all over this land Each one has a dream and a thousand different goals But the one that they all share is that midnight radio

Chorus

They're gonna be big stars in big cars and wear nudie suits Featured on the Opry in rhinestone boots They'll be ridin on a rainbow to a wall hung with gold Hillbilly dreams on the midnight radio Hillbilly dreams on the midnight radio

It started with a fiddler, then banjo and guitar And Roy Acuff was its first singing star Hank and Minnie and Mr. Monroe We all sang with them through that radio

We were big stars in big cars and wearin nudie suits Featured on the Opry in rhinestone boots We were riding on a rainbow to a wall hung with gold Hillbilly dreams on the midnight radio Hillbilly dreams on the midnight radio

This world keeps on changing for the better they say But the more we move ahead the more I miss the old ways Hey I don't mind the modern and as far as I can see I'll keep trying to make the future part of history

Chorus

And be a big star in a big car and wearin nudie suits Featured on the Opry in rhinestone boots I'll be riding on a rainbow to a wall hung with gold Hillbilly dreams on the midnight radio Hillbilly dreams on the midnight radio Hillbilly dreams on the midnight radio Hillbilly dreams on the midnight radio
