

Diffuser, I Am

Take what you can when you can
Cuz the life you have will pass you by
I never should have left all my trust in some one
Who would leave me hangin by a thread, watch me as I hang

I am faith, I am hate
I am no one but me
I am rage, I am shame
I am someone to blame

Rome is on top of the world
But my broken fingers couldn't reach
A superhero came through a cloud
Preching how all my darkest visions never had a shadow of a doubt

I am faith, I am pain
I am no one but me
I am rage, I am shame
I am some one to blame

Coming faces might be different
But they all look the same
Heaven save us from the shameless choices we have to change
Faces that never cry will always stay the same
