

Diffuser, I Don't Have The Nerve

Forget all you know of the nameless revolution

They can hear all the things you said

I don't have the nerve

I don't have the nerve

I don't have the words to say

I don't have the nerve

It's alright to know the television owns you

Clone yourself, then fuck yourself

I don't have the nerve

I don't have the nerve

I don't have the words to say

I don't have the nerve
