Diffuser, Only In The Movies

Shes burning out on apathy Unsure of where she wants to be If she could change the world i think shed rather sleep 18 and feeling out of place Frustrated that she cant relate Knee deep in disillusion of her mental state

(chorus) In time you will learn to stand up on your feet 'Cause only in the movies can you replay every scene Until it comes out clean

Move to a Lower East Side dorm She's got no friend to call her own Still can't get used to living far away from home So Bored to death of being bored Ambition seems to go ingnored Her dispostion is decaying at the core

(chorus)

All things are good and some are bad Its really what you make of it You Re Locked inside a world that a Planned out just for you

(chorus)

Just wait some time In time you will learn to stand up on your feet 'Cause only in the movies can you replay every scene Until it comes out clean
