

Dillon, A Matter Of Time

Rain drops, trees rise
Valleys sink and seas divide
It's only a matter of time

Temperatures rise
Mountains peak, skies fall, floods tide
It's only a matter of time

With the waves
Guiding me
I give way
Go astray

Rain fills my eyes
In the sea I lose my mind
I'm only a matter of time

When we collide
Mountains peak, skies fall, floods tide
We're only a matter of time
