

Dimension Zero, Forgotten... But Not Forgiven

I saw it moving in the darkened sky the gods arriving through the clouds Forgotten but not forgiven remembering all their outrage
I'll not forget when I am dead

They struck the ground I stood on took away every soul undressed my mind and destroyed my shadow I am doomed to walk towards the end

Forgotten but not forgiven
remembering all their outrage
I'll not forget when I am dead
I'll not forgive when I arise
I'll not forget when I am dead

In a state of mind
that can not be felt
it can not be seen
it's like an unconcious terror a few got out out of the frames but the rest were burnt in flames

In a state of mind
that can not be felt
it can not be seen
it's like an unconcious terror Eye to eye with a lost soul armed with the past powers all is real, the old forces they feel dead-silent moving through my limbs icecold stain and eyes met my face this is the fear in this thrilling maze
