

Dimmu Borgir, Master Of Disharmony

Master of disharmony welcome my tainted soul Take me from the hordes of the living into the blessed darkness
Master of disharmony
take my impure flesh Lead me into the path of temptation
save me from cowardness

Save me from cowardness

Master of sin
take my cursed heart
Bring me where I can find salvation
dor I am the danmed

Master of death
take my pitiful life
I am enslaved
I shall never forget the pain

Master of sin
take my cursed heart
Bring me where I can find salvation
for I am the danmed

Master of death
take my pitiful life
I am enslaved
I shall never forget the pain
