Dimmu Borgir, Master Of Disharmony (Live)

Master of disharmony welcome my tained soul Take me from the hordes of the living into the blessed darkness Master of disorder take my impure flesh Lead me unto the path of temptation save me from the cowardness

Save me from the cawardness

Master of sin take my cursed heart Bring me where I can find salvation for I am the damned

Master of death take my pitiful life I am enslaved I shall never forget the pain

Master of sin take my cursed heart Bring me where I can find salvation for I am the damned
