

Dina Carroll, All I Ask

I'm not asking you to change
Who you are or where you're going
I'm not asking you to lose control
I'm not asking for the world
Or for you to keep it spinning
Just let you be the one receiving
All this loving that I'm giving

All I ask is that you love me
In my own special way
And that I'm the one to hold you
When there's nothing left to say
All I ask is that you need me
More than anybody else
That you're there for me to turn to
When I've lost myself
All I ask of you
All I ask of you is that you love me

When I think of all the things
We will do when we're together
I say a little prayer for love
I won't take up all your time
Just give me all your precious moments
Baby open up your arms
And let me fill them with emotion

All I ask is that you love me
In my own special way
And that I'm the one to hold you
All I ask is that you need me
More than anybody else
That you're there for me to turn to
When I've lost myself
All I ask of you
All I ask of you is that you love me

I believe, I believe that you love me
I believe, I believe, I believe
You were meant for me
Let you be, let you breathe, let you fly
So you'll come right back to me
I know you'll come right back to me

All I ask is that you love me
In my own special way
And that I'm the one to hold you
All I ask is that you need me
More than anybody else
That you're there for me to turn to
When I've lost myself
All I ask of you
All I ask of you is that you love me

I believe, I believe
I believe you were meant for me
Let you fly, yes I'll let you breathe
I believe you were meant for me, meant for me
