

Dinosaur Jr., Does It Float

The rain has washed my dog with fear.
A question people think, I call a friend,
And the next wave is valentine.

See yourself call, no big deal,
Ever since that's not a fear.
Just wishing the lamp would shine,
And beam me at it, give me some fuel.
Find a way to clog it up alone.
Terrified, the way you stand,
Feeling natural behind the phone.

Rain has fallen, the tree does cry.
And [mumbling...]
And the toads are running free.
And [mumbling...]
It's no fun and that's what stinks,
Bought a carrot and still can't see.
You know I've been wating for six years,
For a ray of hope, leaves me afloat,
Then I could believe in sunshine.
In the winter time, mountains glow.

There's always so much to adore.
There's a little scenic picture on my skull.
See the second building, imagine where'd you go.
All I wanna know, baby.

Does it float? (x6)
Does it float? (x4)
Why does it float?
Does it float?
