

Dio, Another Lie

She's a rumor in the night
It's crazy
You can see her but she isn't there

She's the stealer of the light
It's crazy
But you go anywhere

It was just a summer night
Maybe
When a shiver cut across the air
Should you run and get away
Maybe
To go where-where-where

She crouches the hunter
Ready to tell you

Another lie
Another lie

You could see the side of someday
Feel the power of the young and strong
You were learning how to fly someday
You were wrong-wrong-wrong

She jumped at the moment
A chance to tell you
Another lie

It was just a summer night
Maybe
When a shiver cut across the air

Should you run and get away
Maybe
To go where-where-where

She jumps at the moment
She crouches the hunter yeah
You look and you know she's telling you

Another lie
Another lie

Why it's crazy
When you feel you're getting stronger
Why it's crazy
All the lies are getting longer

Another lie
Another lie
