

Diorama, Howland Road

yes to brides and yes to grooms we all deserve champagne and caviar freeze your motions realizing trembling here does not affect you run for cover run for shelter their demands are way too sober
zittern hier betrifft dich nicht can you see them waiting for you mind-programming their seductions like the tumors of your loved ones all makes sense and emptiness remains

I'm drifting in a storm behind my little window
can you see me?
can you see me?
I'm creeping under words and riddles and aggressions can you hear me?
can you hear me?

try your luck on unknown streets so trembling here does not affect you have another drink or two so very nice so very nice children killed by smoking drivers cannot hug their orphan pandas all makes sense it all makes sense for trembling here does not affect you 've been too sorry been too friendly been too weak or been too normal this was not expected from you all makes sense and emptiness remains

can you see me?
can you see me?
I'm creeping under words
can you hear me?

so let your children entertain you let your children entertain you
