==English lyrics==

&lt;/lyrics&gt;

In the season, the month of april, the song written on the sand vanishes.

At the bottom, it is a dark and endless tomorrow.

To meet, to say good bye under the blue sky.

The end of summer, I met the sea.

What is love if it just drifts away and it's gone?

What did I pray to the sun that I know I I can't reach, and turn it to ashes?

I can't seem to end it, so again I pick up the pieces of you that disapeared in the sand.

He sings the song written on the sand with his head down, keeping his voice down, and underneath

The tears from sky hit me.

Everyone looks so happy.

You are not here by me on my left side.

The breeze is in blur from last year.

I met you in early autumn.

The weight of sadness more then the weight of the pain.

Flowers blooms and flowers fall, but a flower is as it is a flower.

But also wish to change by tomorrow.

The spring when I looked for you the sand of the sea disappears.
