

Dir En Grey, Disables Complexes

Ah, I can't sleep again tonight
Because you exist
Because I was raped by you
Why do you believe their voices?
Ah, I won't be able to sleep again tomorrow

I threw away, even my slightest hope
Deep down
And I go mad again tonight - And again tonight I go mad

Ah, I can't sleep again tonight
Because you exist
Because I was raped by you
Why do you believe their voices?

I can't coexist in the fabricated society with a crowl
There is no meaning in living

The world is full of psychoes
In your mind

Chikau kotoba mo nai nagasu namida mo karete
Tonight I go mad

Psycho killer
