

Dire Straits, I Think I Love You Too Much

how long, how long baby how long has it been how long you gonna keep me wondering how long before you see how long you gonna keep my love at bay how long before you're sure how long, how long you gonna keep tellin' me you like me fine how long until I'm gonna make you mine how long before you wake up and find a good man gone - how long
