

Dirty Vegas, Walk Into The Sun

Lately I've been feeling different
Like I've come from outer space
And I know there's something missing
When it's you I can't replace

And as I walk into the sun
And as I stare across this ocean
And as I start a brand new day
Will my life ever be the same again?

And up ahead they're in the distance
Shadows coming through the haze
And you're the only one that listens
To help me break loose from these chains

And as I walk into the sun
And as I stare across this ocean
And as I start a brand new day
Will my life ever be the same again?

The same again
I...

And as I walk into the sun
And as I stare across this ocean
And as I start a brand new day
Will my life ever be the same again?

And as I walk into the sun [whoa-ho]
And as I stare across this ocean [whoa-ho]
And as I start a brand new day [whoa-ho]
Will my life ever be the same again?
