

Disturbed, Dehumanized

Lost in slumber a threat to no one
Weak and humble in my disgrace Sweet departure is what I long for careless moments to comfort me

Dead philosophy

If I offer you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again
Left behind

Too determined to be forgotten
Nothing left to enrapture me
Hard and silent, softly breaking
No beloved to comfort me

Dead philosophy

If I offer you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
to be dehumanized again

Feel the determination built into my mind

You're never going to find me
I'll wipe the world away
Your face it will remind me
Just how much I have to leave

If I offer you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again

Said
If I offer you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again

into my mind
