Cool down and listen what I have to say

Bridge:

Cause you once took my love
And it's like that ever since
You've turned my senses apart

Now it's up to you, I want to feel you

Another day is passing and pictures flash by
All I need is your love cause you make me fly

You've learned your lesson, now come back for good
So many things I've said you misunderstood
Cause all that I feel girl, I feel it for you
