

DJ Bobo, Jealousy

Refrain:

Jealousy

First comes luxury, thats all they see

Jealousy

How could I believe you

Jealousy

You cant find the key without honesty

They want my money, they dont care about me

Refrain B:

I trusted them, I helped them

They disappointed me

Its hard to accept it

I feel this jealousy

How could you deceive me

Your life becomes a lie

Stop spreading all the rumours

Im feeling abused

Vers 1:

Hard to find out whos an honest friend

Trust in someone who you understand

I am tired of this jealousy

I walk this way on heavens road

Accept my destiny

Vers 2:

Another rumours going round and round

What a foolish answer I have found

Youre a liar without any shame

Everywhere they mess around,

Theyre playing wicked games

Rap 1:

No more jealousy, insanity, eternally in memory

All for one, one for all, could be reality

I see, they want my money, they dont care about me

Free is what I wanna be

Always think twice about the things you say or do

Cause one day the lie you believe, will become true

Stop spreading all the rumours, I told you a long time ago

But now - youre a liar, youre a liar

Rap 2:

Life is tough, so you gotta get tougher

Rough enough not like a toy, of joy and pain

You blamed my name, its a shame, life aint no game

Like truth or dare, I care, I swear

I was there, anytime, anyplace, anywhere,

I doubt how to heal an open wound, dont turn around

Did you forget I was your friend, trust in someone and I found

Out - youre a liar, youre a liar
