

DJ Bobo, The Colour of Freedom

The colour of freedom, the colour of freedom
Yei, yeah
The colour of freedom will show you the way
The colour of freedom will show you will show
you will show you the way
Danger, I wanna guide you through Too cold in the world, too hard to defende yourself
I'm here to respect, love you, hold you
That's what I told you Talking until the morning light
Hold my body tight all night
In my fantasy I turn you on The dream is over, are you gone?
We are in the strange situation
You and me as one, no declaration
I say the words you long to hear
Is there anything I have to fear?
Love, it's the promtentation
Think about togetherness and combination
Is there a price we have to pay
The colour of freedom will show you the way
The colour of freedom sing my love passion
A sign of emotion will show you the way
The colour of freedom for every nation
The heartbeat of peace has never ran end
The colour of freedom will show you will show
you will show you the way
You're so different, you need like a melody
The harder I try the better is the remedy
Power, energy, do you have a memory
Take my hand in reality
Give me try again just one more time
Let the love we found be back it's also mine
So much we need to share
Send me a smile and show you care I'm searching for the beat, the beat of your heart
Once again let me be a part
A part of your life, a part of your love
A part of what I'm dreaming of
One more chance we're gonna taste it
Now or never, no time to waste it
Is there a price we have to pay
The colour of freedom will show you the way
The colour of freedom sing my love passion
A sign of emotion will show you the way
The colour of freedom for every nation
The heartbeat of peace that will never be stopped
The colour of freedom
The colour of freedom
The colour of freedom
The colour of freedom will show you will show
you will show you the way
The colour of freedom
The colour of freedom
The colour of freedom
The colour of freedom and hope
The colour of freedom sing my love passion
A sign of emotion will show you the way
The colour of freedom for every nation
The heartbeat of peace has never ran end
